

Re: Immediate report – sale of shares by an interested party

Following the Company's immediate report on June 24th, 2021 and some publications in the Israeli press, the company announces that on June 24th, 2021, it was informed by Oria and Iris Ltd (a company owned by Evan Charles Neumann, which is one of the controlling shareholders in the company, hereafter "Oria & Iris"), that it sold 16,678,055 shares of the company, from which 15,398,146 shares were held in trust by Oria & Iris for a company owned by Ricki Neumann, Even Neumann's brother.

After the above sale, Oria & Iris does not hold any of the company's shares in trust for Ricki Neumann or any other third party. Oria & Iris continues to hold 7,022,335 shares of the company, which reflects 4.93% of its share capital. Those shares are held fully by Oria & Iris, with no holding in trust.

To the best of the company's knowledge, the shares were sold to 2 Israeli institutional investors (including a company within the Phoenix Insurance Group, which acquired most of the shares). Upon receipt the required notices, The company will report in accordance with the Israeli law.
